Emily is a driven and ambitious businesswoman who is focused on her career. She has no time for love, or so she thinks. When she meets Jake, a laid-back and easy-going professional baseball player, she is immediately drawn to his charm and good looks. However, she is also hesitant to get involved with someone who is so different from her.

Jake is a star baseball player who is used to getting what he wants. He is confident and charming, but he is also a bit of a player. When he meets

Emily, he is immediately smitten with her intelligence and beauty. However, he is also aware of their differences, and he is not sure if they will be able to make it work.

Despite their differences, Emily and Jake find themselves falling for each other. They share a love of sports, and they both have a competitive spirit. They also both have a strong sense of family and loyalty. As they spend more time together, they realize that their differences are actually what make them perfect for each other.

BTU Alumni is a heartwarming and funny romantic comedy sports romance that will appeal to readers of all ages. It is a story about love, laughter, tears, and finding your happily ever after.
