Proven Success Stories

"Beyond the Bake Sale" has been used by schools and organizations across the country to achieve remarkable fundraising results and empower students.

Case Study: Student Council Raises $50,000 for New Playground

A high school student council used the strategies outlined in "Beyond the Bake Sale" to launch a successful campaign that raised $50,000 for a new playground. By engaging with local businesses, organizing community events, and implementing a peer-to-peer fundraising platform, they surpassed their fundraising goal and made a lasting impact on their school.

Case Study: Service Club Supports Local Food Bank

A middle school service club utilized the lessons learned from "Beyond the Bake Sale" to organize a food drive that collected over 5,000 pounds of food for their local food bank. By partnering with community organizations, coordinating student volunteers, and leveraging social media, they not only raised food but also fostered a sense of compassion and service in their community.
