A Journey Through the Wisdom of George Harrison

George Harrison was one of the most beloved and enigmatic figures in popular music. As a member of the Beatles, he helped to change the course of music history. But behind the public persona, Harrison was a complex and contradictory man who was both a spiritual seeker and a rock 'n' roll icon.

In Every Little Thing Gonna Be Alright, author Joshua M. Greene draws on exclusive interviews with Harrison's friends, family, and collaborators, as well as a wealth of archival research, to paint a vivid portrait of this fascinating man. Greene explores Harrison's childhood, his early days as a Beatle, his spiritual journey, and his solo career. He also examines Harrison's relationships with his fellow Beatles, his wives, and his children.

Every Little Thing Gonna Be Alright is a moving and insightful exploration of the life and work of George Harrison. It is a must-read for fans of the Beatles, rock 'n' roll, and spirituality.
