

Girl of '76: An Epic Tale of Courage, Resilience, and the Unconquerable Spirit of the American Revolution

A Journey Through Time, Loss, and Triumph: Meet Sarah Bradlee Fulton, the Heart of Girl of '76

In Jim Schmalzried's meticulously crafted historical novel, we encounter Sarah Bradlee Fulton, a remarkable young woman whose life becomes intertwined with the tumultuous events of the American Revolution. This captivating story, set against the backdrop of a nation on the brink of independence, paints a vivid portrait of a woman's indomitable spirit in the face of adversity.

Sarah's journey begins in the quaint town of Marblehead, Massachusetts, where she witnesses firsthand the growing tensions between the colonists and the British Crown. As the conflict escalates, her world is shattered when her beloved father, a prominent Loyalist, is taken prisoner by the Patriots. Fueled by a mix of grief and determination, Sarah embarks on a perilous quest to rescue him.
