These poems are a balm for the soul. They offer hope and inspiration in a time when we need it most. They remind us that we are not alone, and that together we can create a more just and compassionate world.

Here is a sample poem from the collection:

The Bridge

Across the chasm, I see you there,

A stranger to me, but still my kin.

Your face is clouded with fear and care,

But I see the spark of hope within.

I reach out my hand, a bridge to span,

The divide that keeps us worlds apart.

Let us walk together, hand in hand,

And build a future where love can start.

We are all connected, you and I,

Children of the same earth and sky.

Let us heal the divide, and build a bridge,

So that all may live in love and peace.
