When a wealthy widow is found dead in her home, it seems like a clear-cut case of murder. But as Detective Inspector Pargeter begins to investigate, she quickly realizes that there is more to this case than meets the eye.

The widow, Mrs. Ashworth, was a kind and generous woman who was loved by everyone who knew her. But she also had a secret: she had been having an affair with a much younger man. When her husband found out about the affair, he was furious. He threatened to divorce her and cut her off financially. Days later, she was dead.

Detective Inspector Pargeter is determined to find out who killed Mrs. Ashworth and bring them to justice. But as she delves deeper into the case, she uncovers a web of lies and deceit that reaches to the highest levels of society. She soon realizes that no one is who they seem and that everyone has something to hide.

As Pargeter gets closer to the truth, she becomes the target of a dangerous killer. She must race against time to find the killer before they strike again. With each twist and turn, Pargeter gets closer to the truth, but she also gets closer to danger.
