The Mi Lab Mokuhanga Handbook for Contemporary Artists is a groundbreaking guide that unlocks the secrets of mokuhanga, the ancient Japanese woodblock printmaking technique, for contemporary artists.

This meticulously crafted handbook combines centuries of traditional knowledge with modern materials and tools, providing artists with the tools they need to create stunning, vibrant woodblock prints with unprecedented ease.

The Unique Charm of Mokuhanga

Mokuhanga is a unique art form that combines the precision of woodblock printing with the expressive freedom of watercolor painting.

Unlike traditional woodblock printing, which uses only black ink, mokuhanga allows artists to create prints with a wide range of colors and textures.

This versatility makes mokuhanga an ideal medium for contemporary artists who seek to explore new and innovative forms of printmaking.

Comprehensive and Accessible Instruction

The Mi Lab Mokuhanga Handbook for Contemporary Artists is designed to be accessible to artists of all skill levels.

The handbook is divided into four parts:

- Part 1: An to Mokuhanga
- Part 2: Materials and Techniques
- Part 3: Projects
- Part 4: Resources

Part 1 provides a comprehensive overview of the history, materials, and techniques of mokuhanga.

Part 2 delves into the details of how to use mokuhanga tools and materials, including step-by-step instructions for carving, inking, and printing.

Part 3 features a series of projects that demonstrate different mokuhanga techniques, from simple to complex.

Part 4 provides a valuable resource section with information on where to find materials, further reading, and online resources.

Exceptional Quality and Presentation

The Mi Lab Mokuhanga Handbook for Contemporary Artists is printed on high-quality paper and features over 200 full-color illustrations.

The handbook is also hardcover and spiral bound, making it easy to use and display.

The combination of exceptional quality and presentation makes the Mi Lab Mokuhanga Handbook for Contemporary Artists an invaluable resource for artists of all levels.
